

Merging Songs in Audacity - GESE Grade 7

Here are some popular songs about education:

"School's Out" by Alice Cooper - a classic rock song that celebrates the end of the school year and the freedom of summer vacation

"Another Brick in the Wall (Part 2)" by Pink Floyd - a classic rock song that critiques the rigid and oppressive nature of the education system

"Rock N Learn" by Rock N Learn - an educational children's song that teaches various subjects through music and lyrics

"Book of Love" by Peter Gabriel - a classic pop song that celebrates the power of knowledge and the importance of learning

"You've Got to Read Between the Lines" by Edwin McCain - a classic pop rock song that encourages listeners to seek out knowledge and educate themselves

"You Learn" by Alanis Morissette - a classic pop rock song that celebrates the lessons learned through life experiences

"Education" by Elvis Costello - a classic alternative rock song that critiques the limitations and biases of the education system

"Goodbye to You" by Michelle Branch - a classic pop rock song that critiques the limitations of traditional education and encourages listeners to seek out alternative paths of learning

"Brain Stew" by Green Day - a classic punk rock song that critiques the pressures and stresses of modern education and society

"A Change Is Gonna Come" by Sam Cooke - a classic soul song that celebrates the power of education and the importance of creating change.

Here are some popular songs about national customs:

"American Pie" by Don McLean - a classic folk rock song that describes the changing cultural and social norms in the United States

"Auld Lang Syne" - a traditional Scottish folk song that is typically sung at New Year's Eve celebrations to bid farewell to the old year and welcome in the new

"Waltzing Matilda" - a traditional Australian folk song that celebrates the country's unique natural beauty and the spirit of its people

"This Land is Your Land" by Woody Guthrie - a classic folk song that celebrates the natural beauty and diversity of the United States

"I've Been Everywhere" by Hank Snow - a classic country song that celebrates the diverse landscapes and cities of the United States and Canada

"Sweet Home Alabama" by Lynyrd Skynyrd - a classic southern rock song that celebrates the state of Alabama and its cultural traditions

"Oh, France" by Loreena McKennitt - a classic folk song that celebrates the natural beauty and rich cultural heritage of France

"Come Out Ye Black and Tans" by The Dubliners - a traditional Irish folk song that commemorates the Easter Rising of 1916 and the struggle for Irish independence

"Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" - a traditional American spiritual song that has been adopted as the unofficial anthem of English rugby

"Viva La Vida" by Coldplay - a modern pop rock song that references various historical events and cultural symbols, including the Mexican celebration of the Day of the Dead.

Here are some popular songs about village and city life:

"Sweet Child o' Mine" by Guns N' Roses - a classic hard rock song that references growing up in the city

"Small Town" by John Mellencamp - a classic rock song that celebrates the simplicity and closeness of life in a small town

"The Big City" by Merle Haggard - a classic country song that reflects on the excitement and opportunities of city life

"I Love This Town" by Talking Heads - a classic new wave song that celebrates the diversity and energy of city life

"The Village Green Preservation Society" by The Kinks - a classic rock song that reflects on the nostalgia and preservation of small town traditions and values

"City of New Orleans" by Arlo Guthrie - a classic folk song that celebrates the sights and sounds of life on a long-distance passenger train

"London Calling" by The Clash - a classic punk rock song that reflects on the cultural and social changes of the city of London

"My Hometown" by Bruce Springsteen - a classic rock song that reflects on the memories and experiences of growing up in a small town

"Country Roads" by John Denver - a classic country folk song that celebrates the natural beauty and simplicity of life in the countryside

"Suburban War" by Arcade Fire - a modern indie rock song that reflects on the cultural and social tensions of suburban life.